CLOTHING OR DAMAGES

Mrs. Augustine Sues Oceanic Co.

ADMIRALTY SUIT IS FILED

Land Commissioner Boyd to Leave for Hilo Soon.

A. E. Augustine of this city has brought suit for damages in the sum of $1,231 against the Oceanic Steamship Company for the failure of the latter corporation to deliver to her a trunk which was placed aboard the steamer Mariposa on which she was a first-class passenger.

In her complaint she states she is a resident of Seattle, Washington, and says the Oceanic Steamship Company is a common carrier between Honolulu and San Francisco, California. That on or about February 12, 1901, the steamship company caused its steamship Mariposa to enter the port of Honolulu for the purpose of carrying passengers to San Francisco and advertised the ship as a common carrier. On or about that date the plaintiff says she applied to the company through its duly authorized agents for passage to San Francisco and purchased a first-class ticket, entitling her to passage with a transshipment of her baggage. On the same day the plaintiff says she delivered a trunk to the steamship company which the company's servants took in charge giving her a receipt for the same which check is numbered "O. S. S. Co. M. 58."

Later she boarded the Mariposa and was carried to San Francisco safely. There she sought her trunk from the officers of the steamship company and presented the check, but the steamship officers reported to her that they could not find the trunk, and were therefore unable to deliver the same to her. On March 26, 1901, the plaintiff presented a claim for her trunk but the company wholly refused and neglected to pay for the same. She claims the value of the trunk lost by the defendant company is $1,231.

Yesterday was the last day of grace for attorneys who wished to file complaints in actions that will appear during the August term of the First Circuit Court. A number of lawyers waited until late in the afternoon before they entered their complaints with Clerk Smith.

MAGOOON DISPLEASES HER.

A native woman, some 27 years of age, asks through her attorney, W. J. Robinson, that J. A. Magoon, who is and has been the legal custodian of her property since October, 1889, be discharged from that office, as he is not only uncongenial to her personally, but refuses to present accounts as the law directs.

In her complaint the woman declares that in October, 1889, Magoon was made her guardian. In February, 1894, she became of age, and in July of the same year was married to one Kaulaula at Kaneohe, Oahu, by a minister of the gospel. Since that time she has been a kind, faithful and loving wife, doing her own housework and making her own clothes. Her conduct has been most exemplary, and she is accustomed to habits of economy and frugality. In view of these things and fully believing herself to be competent to manage her own affairs, she asks that Mr. Magoon be discharged from his office. Her attorney, she affirms, is unobedient and inattentive. Often when she visits him asking for a report of his expenditures and receipts, he tells her to "come again." If she is to have a guardian, the petitioner asks that it be someone else than Magoon.

A SEAMAN'S WOES.

Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock the hearing in the matter of the United States versus Robert M. Tapley, and Patrick McCarty, the captain and the second mate of the American ship St. James, who are accused of cruelty on the high seas, against an able-bodied seaman, named Herbert Hadley, was begun before Commissioner Robinson.

Hadley alleges that on May 31st, while all hands were on deck, pulling on the main brace, a heavy sea which the St. James shipped, threw him down, injuring his knee, hurting his back, and rendering him insensible. McCarty, the second mate, began kicking him about the back and shoulders with his heavy sea boots. From the injuries received he was forced to remain in his bunk for several days.

On the witness stand yesterday afternoon the plaintiff declared that the captain did nothing to prevent the abuse of the mate, although he saw the whole affair.

Ten subpoenas were served by Marshal Hendry yesterday for the appearance of witnesses in the above named action. They were John Towlo, Hans Gunderson, George H. Thelle, Emil Osterhand, C. Nelson, D. Hagland, F. Eglett, Herbert Hadley, David Atkinson and Peter Hyman.

FORMAL DENIAL FILED.

Hatch & Stillman, representing their client, F. J. Cross, in the action of Jargon's Wireless Telegraph Company vs. F. J. Cross, have filed a formal denial to the allegations in the complaint filed.

WANTS INJUNCTION DISSOLVED.

Answers were filed yesterday by Lorin Andrews, in the civil suit of S. M. Kanakani vs. John Ena et al., more familiarly known as the "Twelve Injunction case." The attorney for the defendant asks that the injunction now in force be dissolved by order of the court.

SECOND ADMIRALTY SUIT.

The bark C. D. Bryant brought no end of legal troubles with her when she shipped from San Francisco on the 17th of June. For the second time within a week a suit in admiralty has been instituted. The libellant is Pearson, Potter & Co., Ltd., of this city and the libellee is the bark C. D. Bryant.

Among the cargo damaged by water on the morning of the 7th were ten packages, to wit, some safety deposit boxes, the number of which is not stated in the complaint. Their value, as appraised by Pearson-Potter Co., is $1,085.

The proctors for libellant are Andrews, Peters & Andrade.

NOTES.

Two or three Chinese cases will be called before Judge Estee this morning. James Dyson, a subject of Edward VII, King of England and Emperor of India, was admitted to citizenship yesterday upon the testimony of H. P. Baldwin and S. T. Alexander.

Berger's Band Caught On.

Prof. Berger and the musicians and singers of the Territorial Band have the thanks of everyone who was here at the races for some excellent music. Prof. Berger showed a disposition to give the people of Hilo all the music they wanted and he was generous in acceding to requests for special numbers and in giving encores. His wish was to keep the band here for a week and give concerts every night, but as the committee provided for expenses only during the holidays his wish could not be gratified. He hopes, however, that the government will make such arrangements as will permit his return to Hilo with the band during the autumn. If this can be done the public will give him and his boys the right sort of welcome.—Hawaii Herald.

UNNATURAL HISTORY.

A word anent that monstrous beast of arrogant approach—Blatta Hawiianensis, or the Hawaiian cockroach.

It is, in sooth, a fearsome fowl, of aspect most appalling—When first one meets it in the dark, one hears the angels calling.

It haunts the scullery's crumby nooks, and 'tis a sight bewitching. To watch it chase the little mice at midnight 'round the kitchen.

A stranger in the land once spied, engaged in artless play, Upon his quilt, an adult roach, and to his wife did say:

"Dear me! dear me! what can it be? The beast a curious sort is;" His better half replied, "Oh, John! please rise and kill the tortoise."

It lives to eat—a shocking thing, nor loves industrious strife. 'Tis sad, indeed, to ponder o'er the roach's misspent life.

So large and strong! could it but learn to shun the tempting jam jar, A useful part it might enact, hitched to a local tramcar.

H. M. AYRES.

Summer complaint is unusually prevalent among children this season. A well developed case in the writer's family was cured last week by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy—one of the best patent medicines manufactured, and which is always kept on hand at the home of every family. This is not intended as a free puff for the company, who do not advertise with us, but to benefit little sufferers who may not be within easy access of a physician. No family should be without a bottle of this medicine in the house, especially in summer time.—Lansing (Ia.) Journal. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., wholesale agents.
